

A Gaskell Show of Mezzotints and Notable Etchings

An interesting exhibition of original etchings and mezzotints is now on at the gallery of Samuel Schwartz's Room & Co., No. 220 Fifth Avenue.

The exhibition contains thirty-eight mezzotints, and strongly reflects Mr. Gaskell's marked preference for pure landscape or a combination of landscape with architecture.

The exhibiting artist was born in Yorkshire in 1848 and studied under Douglass and Ferrer. He began exhibiting in London in 1891, and was strongly influenced in his engraving and etching work by Frank Short, R. A., P. R. S. The result has been a notable exemplification of his taste on the value of line.

A carefully considered preliminary sketch is very generally the basis of most of Mr. Gaskell's mezzotint plates. His appreciation of tone values is highly developed, and the line is skilfully used by him to hold the design well together and to supply a few crisp accents.

His "Gathering Storm, Lake Garda," introduces a landscape motif. The low-lying hills rise into more precipitous elevations. The stream is well portrayed, and the action of the rowboat pulling upstream is well registered. The sky effects are to light and shade are well handled, and the results he has thus obtained are good.

"One of Wordsworth's Views" deals with a grand tree with gnarled roots and overhanging foliage. His introduction of the fox gives life and animation to the plate.

"Twilight in Alpine Valley" is a charming study of snow-capped mountain peaks. He introduces some excellent contrasts in black and white.

"Where Forlorn Sunsets Flare and Fade" is perhaps his rarest plate. The radiating lines of sunset are highly effective. Aquatic birds in flock and two individuals struggle for supremacy as to execution and finish. An impression from the de-stayed plate forms an interesting side item.

"Naiads' Hour" is a sympathetic treatment of a group of nude bathers. Charming bits are "Mad King's Castle," in two distinct mediums. The buildings are perched upon beetling cliffs, and the management of light and shade is superb. The stars as sentinels look down upon the pictured scene.

"Gastenthal, Bernese Oberland," and the preliminary etching made for it, make most interesting companion pieces. The mountains with their cloud atmosphere and background are wonderful. A ribbon of waterfall, emptying into a tranquilly flowing stream, at the base of the cliffs, is well handled.

"On the Proms" is an Academy picture, featuring two trees.

"Reva degli Schiavani, Venice," is a typical beach scene, introducing miniature figures, while "Marcote" very pleasantly, deals with a purely architectural theme.

Weak Stomachs

Systems weakened by improper nourishment through weak stomachs susceptible to disease.

The lowered vitality resulting from a weak stomach which fails to properly digest food and repair the constantly wearing out tissues is unable to properly cope with the attacks from disease germs to which the human organism is always subjected.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has proved to be a valuable aid in restoring digestion to the weakened, deranged stomach. Many doctors rely upon it in cases of this kind because they have proved its efficacy. Better health awaits you, if you take Duffy's in tablespoonful doses as directed.

Sold by most druggists, grocers and dealers. If they can't supply you, write us. Useful medical booklet free.

TODAY'S BEAUTY SUGGESTIONS

Face powder simply covers up an unattractive complexion and leaves no lasting benefits. Those who have tried a simple spumax face lotion find it much better, as it removes skin discolorations, such as freckles and tan, and makes the skin smooth, white and velvety. This lotion is made by dissolving four ounces of spumax in one-half pint hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerin. This complexion beautifier does not rub off or show like powder, and gives a more refined appearance. It removes both shininess and sallowness, rapidly giving the skin a permanent healthy, youthful appearance.

An especially fine shampoo for this weather can be had at trifling expense by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather that dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. Rinsing leaves the scalp specially clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on a pleasing richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem very much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.

DEITY NO "GOD OF WAR"

In a lecture at the Third Christian Church, No. 25 East One Hundred Street, the Rev. Dr. J. H. McMane, D.D., of the University of Chicago, declared that the deity of the Bible was not a God of war, but a God of peace.

Always Be Sure of the Number

There are two ways to call a telephone number.

The wrong way is to call from memory; to "take a chance," to trust to luck that your memory doesn't play a trick on you, with the fickle figures in a telephone number.

The right way is to consult the Telephone Directory and make sure you have the right number.

The right way saves annoyance to yourself and to the persons you might have called by mistake. It helps build up a higher grade of service for yourself and others.

Always consult the Telephone Directory—make sure you call the right number.

THE TRIUMPH OF TEMPERANCE

NOAH WEBSTER says that "Temperance means restrained or moderate indulgence."

So carelessly has this word been applied by some of our fellow men, that we have almost been stampeded into believing that temperance means total abstinence in the use of alcoholic beverages, and a firm belief in the doctrine of PROHIBITION.

Temperance, according to Webster, must mean moderate indulgence in everything—Work or Play, Eating or Drinking—in short, in all the occupations and recreations of man.

Successful men succeed because they practise temperance. Temperance is a wonderful virtue. It denotes character of the highest quality. If you would find happiness, practise temperance—Work moderately, Play moderately, Eat moderately, Drink moderately.

Leading physicians have long recognized the food value of pure, wholesome Beer, and heartily recommend its moderate use as a medium of bodily nourishment and alimentary gratification.

RUPPERT'S Knickerbocker

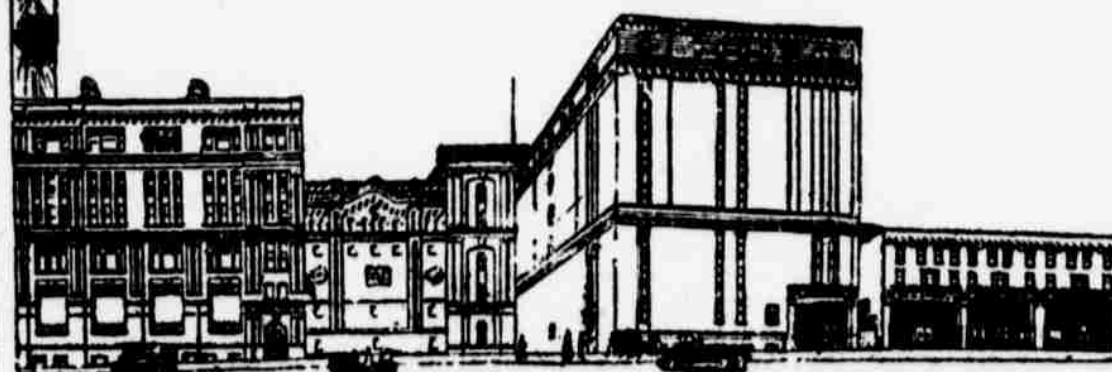

The Beer That Satisfies

is absolutely pure and when used in moderation is the ideal beverage of the temperate and the logical food drink of temperance. Its quality stands as a direct rebuttal of the theory that the best is only to be found in imported Beers. It is the product of hygienic brewing, careful filtering, proper aging, sanitary bottling and thorough pasteurization, making it a beverage that is unsurpassed by any Beer made anywhere.

In Bottles and on Draught. Bottled at the Brewery Exclusively.
